

FOOD & NUTRITION FORUM

Keynote Speakers

Dr. Sara Place

Melissa Joy Dobbins

John Jamieson

SAVE THE DATE!

Tuesday November 10, 2020 starts at 11:00 a.m. EDT

www.royalfair.org/virtual

Viewable through the Royal Auditorium

Hosted by Farm & Food Care

Dr. Sara Place - Chief Sustainability Officer for Elanco Animal Health

The Real Impact of Livestock Farming on the Environment

This presentation will highlight how grazing animals fit within a sustainable food system, covering sustainability, feed vs. food competition and climate change.

Melissa Joy Dobbins, MS, RDN, CDE The Guilt-Free RD®. Host of Sound Bites® Inc Podcast.

From Science to Soundbites - Connecting the Dots and Communicating the Facts

Melissa Joy Dobbins MS, RDN, CDE is an award winning, nationally recognized registered dietitian nutritionist and certified diabetes educator. She is known as The Guilt-Free RD® -With more than 25 years' experience, Melissa helps people digest nutrition information so they can make their own well-informed food decisions based on facts, not fear.

Farmers Panel - Moderated by Clinton Monchuk

You Ask; They Answer

A panel of farmers from coast to coast answer your questions about food and farming in their parts of the country

John Jamieson - President and CEO, Canadian Centre for Food Integrity

CCFI 2020 Public Trust Research Launch

How has public opinion been impacted by COVID-19? What new and emerging food trends should the food system be preparing for. CCFI's 5+ years of tracking data provides context on changes in public trust in Canada's food system and results from new research areas such as sustainability plant-based food, food packaging, and food security.

Registration starts on September 28, 2020 www.royalfair.org/virtual

Post conference, the first 100 attendees to fill out a survey will receive a delegate gift box from sponsors with a value of up to $100.

