

YOUR Support Matters

Farm & Food Care Ontario relies on the support of members, partners and donors to continue this important work. Join the movement of agri-food partners supporting public trust building here in Ontario

$60+

Individual Level Donors/members

Individual level donors/members understand the value of building connections between farm gate and dinner plate and collaboration across all sectors of the agri-food industry. Charitable tax receipts are of primary benefit to this membership level.

Supporter Level Membership/donors

Supporter Level members are individuals, farms, or smaller ag associations and businesses that believe in the work of Farm & Food Care and leverage their support of the organization to spread the word about the work of public trust building in food and farming with their own followers, clients and friends. There is a option to be either a member or donor.

$1,800+

Silver Level Membership

Silver members of Farm & Food Care Ontario are agribusinesses, ag associations, and smaller commodity groups who are passionate about building meaningful connections with consumers about the food they eat.

Gold Level Membership

Gold members are influential farm organizations, agribusinesses and commodity groups who provide a critical voice in Farm & Food Care Ontario's work, expert advice and valuable connections to industry.

Platinum Level Membership

Platinum members make up the core and foundation of Farm & Food Care Ontario's work by providing leadership level support annually. Platinum members leverage the benefits of their membership to provide training and opportunities for their industry partners to gather and build the movement of public trust building work here in Ontario.
